CONDITIONALLY UNDER SEAL

SEALED

After consideration upon motion brought by Plaintiff ST. MATTHEW'S UNIVERSITY (CAYMAN) LTD. in the above-captioned case, and good cause having been shown therefor, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED:

Plaintiff may take immediate discovery on each direct service provider of each respective Defendant to obtain the identity and location of the Defendants by serving a Rule 45 subpoena that seeks information sufficient to identify the Defendants, including materials providing the Defendants' names, business and residential addresses, telephone numbers, e-mail addresses, payment source identification, and Media Access Control addresses (if available) related to each and any Defendant. Direct service providers shall include corporate service companies, web development vendors, web hosting vendors, email service providers, and domain name registration service providers.

Plaintiff may take immediate discovery on each Internet Service Provider ("ISP") used by each and any Defendant to obtain the identity and location of the Defendants by serving a Rule 45 subpoena that seeks information sufficient to identify the Defendants, including names, addresses, telephone numbers, e-mail addresses, and Media Access Control addresses for each and any Defendant.

With respect to cable ISPs, this ruling further authorizes disclosure of information pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 551(c)(2)(B).

Each subpoena shall be accompanied by a copy of this order, though this order shall be filed under seal in compliance with prior order of this court.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
